SUPPLEMENT.

Chariton Courier.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI, MAY 24, 1879.

MADAM ANDERSON, the female walkist, has been sued by Cornelius Eastope, her manager, for a breach of contract. The plaintiff claiming $3, 000 damages.

THE office of the Detroit Post and Tribune received a severe scorching last Sunday morning. The fire is sup posed to have originated from the spontaneous combustion of oiled rags in the press room.

WHERE there is so much smoke there certainly must be some fire.
We are led to believe from reports that Secretary Sherman is boring post holes preparatory to setting out his Presidential stakes.

THE Sturgeon Leader is in possion of the fact that an ex-member of the Legislature is now serving out a term of years in the state penitentiary, un der sentence of sending out circulars of an obscene character.

A YOUNG man named Francis E.
Hayden, of Fitchburg, Mass., has been arrested, charged with poisoning his father, mother and sister. The only cause attributed for committing the crime is that he thought to secure his father's property, valued at $8,500.

THE New York Central road has made an order prohibiting the sale of anything on the cars of the line except books and papers. All the varied store of gift packages, fruits, candies, etc., are things of the past. Other roads would do well to follow the example.

OISEAU.
THIS Thoroughbred Stallion, so well known by the fine horse breeders of Chariton and adjoining Counties, will remain this season at Keytesville.
He was sired by the Celebrated Imported English Stallion SHARP CATCHER. His dam is the famous Thoroughbred race mare FLEETFOOT, by MAHOMET.
All admirers of the fine horse should go and see OISEAU when visit ing Keytesville.
The terms of his breeding are $10 by the season. Mares not prov ing to be with foal may be bred back next season free of charge.

In the Senate, on the 19th, consideration was resumed of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill, and Mr.
Blaine spoke in opposition to the proposed amendments. He said (referring to Mr.
Eaton's speech on Friday) attempts were be ing made to make the bill a measure of Apparently they regard the two as one animal, and one that is too powerful for them. To get off of a horse in a herd of wild Texas cattle is almost worth a man's life, and an experienced herder will never do it.
